

Prioritising Investment
Proposal	Response

s22

Government should progress the sale of Airservices Australia, with the resulting funds used to establish an 'Aviation Future Fund'	Not supported. Airservices Australia is a legally and financially independent statutory authority which is fully funded through industry charging. s47C
--	--

	s47C
Responsibility for the provision of Aerodrome Firefighting and Rescue Services (ARFFS) be transferred to individual airport owners	Not supported. The Department of Infrastructure and Regional Development is currently undertaking a review of Aviation Rescue and Firefighting Services (ARFFS) regulatory policy, in consultation with Airservices and CASA, including a public and industry consultation process which is examining means of achieving more risk based and efficient ARFFS outcomes.

s22

Investing in Capability
Proposal	Response
The proceeds from the sale of Airservices Australia be used to establish an 'Aviation Future Fund'	Not supported. Airservices Australia is a legally and financially independent statutory authority which is fully funded through industry charging. s47C